Overall Comments and Feed Forward

This is a very accomplished and sophisticated submission, Sarah-Jane. Assessors were impressed by the depth of engagement, inquiry and creativity evident through your work. The film work and essay are particularly strong and well researched.

Going forward to the next level, you will need to continue researching widely - but then take time to reflect and to draw out the specific research strands that you will really interrogate through the body of work; otherwise you may be in danger of losing your way in a sea of ideas. Continue the good practice of seeking feedback from your peers and having meaningful dialogue with your tutors.

We look forward to following your progress and wish you well in your HE6 studies.
